A MESSAGE FROM:

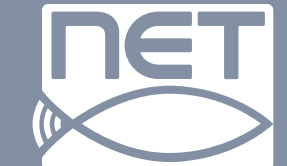

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

Follow Msgr. Harrington @MonsignorH

We read in John 15:13 "Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." For Christians, the symbol of love is the Cross. This is in stark contrast to the secular symbol, which holds up the shape of a heart pierced by an arrow so as to confuse affection with love. Affection is located in our senses while love is fixed in our will. The decision to be for others is the example of Christ on the Cross, which we who are Christian aspire to emulate. We, who are people of faith, know that it takes supernatural strength to resist the undertow of materialism and sensualism. That supernatural strength is God's grace. Let us strive each day to seek out opportunities in our reception of the sacraments - Confession and Holy Communion - in our prayers and good works, so as to be transformed by the grace of God and be his ministers of love in our world. May God bless you.
