In anticipation of WYD Poland, watch a collection of stories from WYD Madrid 2011 on Sunday at 3 PM and Monday at 9 PM. Then on Tuesday at 8:30 PM, revisit WYD Rio 2013. NY Catholic Youth Day, airing throughout the week, was a recent event hosted by the Archdiocese of New York.

JULY 26 TO 31

2016 WORLD YOUTH DAY IN KRAKOW, POLAND

NET TV's exclusive coverage begins on Tuesday, July 26 with special packages from Currents' news correspondent Michelle Powers and stories from Tablet reporter Maria-Pia Negro Chin. They are with the Diocese of Brooklyn pilgrims, covering unique and universal stories, from our diocesan youth. The coverage also includes Knights of Columbus' International English-language catechetical sessions and the youth festival at the Tauron Arena "Mercy Centre." LIVE broadcasts include the Welcoming Ceremony with Pope Francis on Thursday, a Prayer Vigil on Saturday and the Closing Mass on Sunday. For the complete coverage schedule, please visit www.netny.tv/schedule and follow the conversation on Twitter at #WYDOB.

A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
 Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

Follow Msgr. Harrington @MonsignorH

Heavenly Father, we ask that you bless and inspire these delegates that their deliberations over these next four days might be earnest and fruitful. Our forefather's recognized in your Divine plan the freedom you intended for all men and women. We stand before you contrite for those times in our history where we failed to be the "shining city on the hill" for which you destined our great land. We humbly give you thanks most especially for those who bravely wear the uniform here at home and abroad. Inspire us to build a more noble society that reflects your Divine image to a world that is broken and brought low by sin. (Excerpt from Msgr. Harrington's 2016 RNC Invocation.
