

REFUGEES: ENEMIES OR VICTIMS?

FEATURING:

SHADI MARTINI
Refugee, Advisor for the Multifaith Alliance

SANA MUSTAFA
Syrian Activist,
Student, Asylee

DONALD KERWIN
Center for Migration Studies

ROSE HAMID
American-born Muslim

MARIO RUSSELL
Catholic Charities

RIVA SILVERMAN
HIAS

The Syrian Civil War has created one of the greatest humanitarian crises in the last 60 years, displacing millions of men, women, and children. How many has the US taken in? Should we even allow refugees into our country?

“Refugees: Enemies or Victims?” investigates the very important question of whether the United States is doing enough to uphold its long tradition of helping those in need.

Written, Directed, and Produced by Terence Donnellan

NET TV PREMIERE
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 3 AT 9 PM

www.netny.tv/refugees

nettvny @netnytv

Cablevision 30
Time Warner Cable 97
Verizon Fios 48

