THURSDAY 5/4

ALL THINGS CATHOLIC 9 PM

Pt. 2. Joe Estevez continues his visit to the Good Shepherd Center in downtown L.A. He talks with volunteers about how the program works and about other services the Center offers to strengthen their mission in empowering homeless women and their children to be self-sufficient.

A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor
Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

Follow Msgr. Harrington
@MonsignorH

In the aftermath of the recent attack in France and the continuous violent persecution of Coptic Christians, the Pope is traveling to Egypt. Pope Francis and Patriarch Bartholomew will join Pope Tawadros II - Bishop of Alexandria, Patriarch of Egypt and All Africa - at a special peace conference in order to demonstrate a united Christian front against violence and fanaticism. Pontifex, an ancient title for the popes, means bridge-builder. The Holy Father is offering us a courageous lesson about the importance of building bridges within the Christian community and the broader religious world. Let's all pray that the world may reap the fruits of peace that Pope Francis is sowing. May God bless you.
