THIS WEEK ON NET TV

FEBRUARY/MARCH 2017 WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS

SUNDAY 2/26

CLASSIC 3 PM
In this The Red Skelton Show special, Daniel Roebuck and Ed Wilkinson discuss the American variety show that was a television staple for two decades, from 1951 to 1971. Encore Saturday 3/4 at 8 PM.

IN THE ARENA 8 PM
Msgr. Harrington is joined by Rabbi Brad Hirschfield, author and the president of The National Jewish Center for Learning and Leadership, to discuss recent headlines. Then Matthew Soerens, author and activist, is in to discuss the current global state of refugees.

MONDAY 2/27

WALK IN FAITH 9 PM
A brand new NET TV show where we go beyond the images and discover who our guests really are. You may know them from television, movies and sports, but do we really know who they are? Do we know what inspires them? Tune in and walk with us. Featuring Dr. Oz, Sam Worthington and more.

TUESDAY 2/28

OUT OF THE SHADOWS 9 PM
Dominican Father Allen White, an Oxford-trained historian and long-time denizen of the Eternal City, traces the origins of Roman Christianity from its obscure, house-church beginnings to its ultimate triumph over the imperial power. Encore Saturday 3/4 at 5 PM.

WEDNESDAY 3/1

ON THE BLOCK - FR. BRISTOL 9 PM
Ed Wilkinson talks with Father Bristol, who was ordained last year and is now the parochial vicar at St. Anastasia parish in Douglaston. They discuss Fr. Bristol's calling to the priesthood and his duty as a military chaplain for the U.S. Navy.

FRIDAY 3/3

BEN-HUR: A TALE OF FORGIVENESS 8 PM
This companion TV special for last year's re-imagining of the 1959 classic offers a behind-the-scenes look at the making of the film and commentaries from many of America's loved faith leaders. Encore Saturday 3/4 at 6:30 PM.

A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

Follow Msgr. Harrington @MonsignorH

Lent is set to begin this Ash Wednesday. Throughout the city, Catholics and other Christians will be marked with dust as a reminder of the passing nature of our world. Recently, I was watching the television series The Young Pope. The central character, Pius XIII, asked his colleagues a simple question: "Why did you become a priest?" In a beautiful response, one of the Cardinals replied that he considered the brevity of life versus eternity, and so the priesthood was an easy choice. In these 40 days, we would do well to reflect on eternity. If we are Christians, why have our lives not yet been brought into conformity with the Gospel? In these 40 days, we will begin our training anew. Let us recommit ourselves to more fervent prayers. This will enable us to not fear the mortification of our flesh by denying our appetites. Employing both of these weapons, we shall trust the Almighty more and more in our lives, thereby conquering the materialism that pervades our world with heroic Christian charity. May God bless you.
