THIS WEEK ON NET TV

MARCH 2017 WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS

SUNDAY 3/5

CLASSIC 3 PM

Daniel Roebuck and Liz Faublas talk about The Scarlet Pimpernel (1934), a film by Harold Young starring Leslie Howard. Based on 1908 adventure novel by Baroness Orczy, the film is about an 18th-century English aristocrat who leads a double life during the French Revolution. Encore Saturday 3/11 at 8 PM.

IN THE ARENA 8 PM

Msgr. Harrington is joined by Archbp. Charles Chaput of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to discuss his new book Strangers in a Strange Land: Living the Catholic Faith in a Post-Christian World. All this and much more on In the Arena - faith at the forefront of today's news and events. Coming to you from the heart of NYC.

EVERY NIGHT

HISPANIC BLOCK 10:30 PM - 11:30 PM

NET TV's prime time Hispanic Block features original programming such as Al Pan, Pan, and conversations that reflect the diversity of our community. See new episodes of Donde Dios Llora on Sunday, Redescubrir on Wednesday and Cristo Para Todos on Friday at 10:30 PM.

MONDAY 3/6

REDISCOVER - PART I 9 PM

Is it possible that the root of the problems in our lives, in our families, and in our society is really a crisis of faith? This is the first of two programs that not only touches on what it really means to believe but also tries to respond to questions and doubts about the relationship between faith and reason.

WEDNESDAY 3/8

THE CATHOLIC NOVEL 6 PM

As defined by Fr. Lauder, The Catholic Novel is any story whose theme is directly related to some teachings, dogmatic or moral, or some Catholic sacramental principles AND the mystery of Catholicism is treated favorably. In this episode, Fr. Lauder discusses Graham Green's The Power and the Glory.

ON THE BLOCK - FR. TORRES 9 PM

Ed Wilkinson talks with Fr. Agustino Torres of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal. Drawing from his own life experiences, Father Agustino illustrates what it means to live a radical life in Christ. He has helped establish and serves at St. Anthony Shelter for Renewal, a night shelter for NYC's homeless.

A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor
Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

Follow Msgr. Harrington
@MonsignorH

This past week I had the opportunity to interview Archbishop Charles Chaput about his new book Strangers in a Strange Land. At any given point in our lives, there is always a time when we feel like strangers, a sense of not belonging. When the priest imposes ashes upon our foreheads on Ash Wednesday, we are reminded of the brevity of our lives here on earth and are called to focus on eternity. Thus, we are never comfortable here in this world. In these forty days of Lent, we deny ourselves some comforts as an expression that our desires will never be satisfied if we seek pleasure. For only in our relationship with God can true joy be discovered. May God bless you.
