THIS WEEK ON NET TV

JANUARY 2017 WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS

SUNDAY 1/8

TELEMATER 12 NOON

The Television of the Mother is an Italian Catholic television program in New York City. Now on NET TV every Sunday with Italian-language Sunday Mass from Our Lady of Pompeii Church in Manhattan and every Saturday with new shows.

CLASSIC 3 PM

In this Western special, Daniel Roebuck and Ed Wilkinson talk about The Slowest Gun in the West, a 1960 comedy western television film by Herschel Daugherty and Hopalong Cassidy (1952) starring William Boyd. Encore Saturday 1/14 at 8 PM.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD 6 PM

Pope Francis celebrates the feast of Lord's Baptism with a Holy Mass and the baptisms of children at the Sistine Chapel.

WEEKDAYS

CURRENTS 7:30 PM

New York's daily Catholic news program brings you stories from the diocese and the world. Don't miss the latest reports from anchor Liz Faublas and the news correspondents.

TUESDAY 1/10

THE MYSTERY & MEANING OF MARRIAGE 8:30 PM

Ep. 6 - Real Challenges, Real Love. Marriage is absolutely beautiful. But it's also messy. Conflict, communication issues, unexpected turns in life, and wounds from the past are all a part of every good marriage. Will these challenges be sources of division or possibilities for our love to rise to a whole new level?

FRIDAY 1/13

CODY HIGH 9 PM

In 2014, with the partnership of Life Remodeled, a Detroit-focused non-profit organization, the Cody Rouge community rose up alongside over 10,000 volunteers to remodel over 300 blocks of their neighborhood.

A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

Follow Msgr. Harrington @MonsignorH

The movie Silence is a dark drama about the struggle of faith. The central character, Father Sebastião Rodrigues wrestles with the silence of God. The film leaves us pondering, What does it really mean to be faithful? This 2017, we would do well to make the time to see Martin Scorsese's latest film. Throughout the world today, many Christians continue to suffer for their faith. Is God Silent? May God bless you.
