Now that school is out, the summer season begins in earnest. Recreation is essential for our health - truly it is a re-creation. There are many ways we can make good use of our time, but how do you make the best use of your time? Perhaps we can begin by asking, Is my leisure time life-giving? Does my leisure time bring me closer to God? Does it strengthen the bonds of family and genuine friendship? When I am on vacation, is my mind open to new realities? Do I have a heightened sense of smell and taste? Am I more aware of my surroundings in what I see and hear? Does my time away from the usual routines of life allow me to bask in the glory of the wonder of God's creation? A vacation should not turn into frenetic activities, but ought to afford us the space to see our lives from another perspective. Here is to a great summer. Make the time for some re-creation! May God bless you.
