THE CATHOLIC NOVEL 6 PM
Fr. Lauder discusses Walker Percy's The Moviegoer. First published in 1961, the novel explores the existentialist journey of Binx Bolling, a young stockbroker in post-war New Orleans who daydreams constantly, and finds more meaning and immediacy in movies and books than in his own routine life.

Dominican Sisters of Hawthorne – The Congregation of St. Rose of Lima was founded in 1900 by Rose Hawthorne Lathrop (Mother Mary Alphonsa), the daughter of Nathaniel Hawthorne. The charism of Mother Alphonsa was to bring the healing spirit of Christ to the incurable cancer patients.

A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

Follow Msgr. Harrington @MonsignorH

In this Sunday's readings, we learn that though the people of Israel had seen His power when He led them out of slavery in Egypt, they still tested God during their journey in the desert. The patience and benevolence of our heavenly Father is again dramatized in the confrontation of Jesus with the Samaritan woman at the well. This ought to be a source of comfort for you and me as we move through the season of Lent. When we have a powerful encounter with God and experience His mercy, we are compelled to move beyond thirsting for God to actually drinking the living water, which He offers us. Let us meditate upon the example of Joseph, the stepfather of Jesus, who neither rebelled nor was paralyzed when confronted with the Divine Plan. He trusted that, despite all of his inadequacies, God had chosen him to care for the young child who had come to redeem the world. May God bless you.
