FRIDAY 6/9

A NEW LEAF 10 PM

During a visit to Niger in July 2012 to film the documentary, Salt + Light TV witnessed the growing food crisis in the West African region called the Sahel, as well as the lifesaving efforts of Development and Peace, the Canadian Foodgrains Bank, and their local partners.

SATURDAY 6/10

BIKING 4 VOCATIONS 4 PM

In 2015, five priests and seminarians from the Arch. of New York, the Brooklyn Diocese and the Diocese of Rockville Centre, embarked on a 1,400-mile bike journey to promote vocations to the priesthood and religious life. They began in Florida and finished 29 days later in Rockville Center, LI.

A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

Follow Msgr. Harrington @MonsignorH

The experience of being orphaned is one of abandonment. With the Ascension of the Lord we can surmise this was the feeling of the apostles as they huddled in the upper room. Imagine therefore the great joy on Pentecost! As confirmation of this promise, the disciples now must not simply remember the miracles that Jesus worked when He walked among them, these miraculous works are manifested for them in their own ministry. This same Spirit is bestowed upon you and me. Do we recognize the movement and see the power of the Spirit at work in our own life? May God bless you.
