THIS WEEK ON NET TV

NEW YORK'S CATHOLIC STATION

NOVEMBER 2017 WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS

SUNDAY 11/19

CLASSIC 3 PM

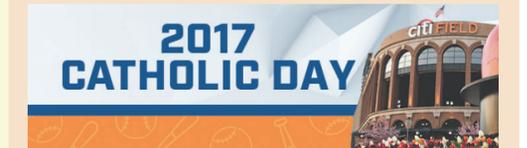

Ed Wilkinson and Daniel Roebuck discuss I Cover the Waterfront (1933). Based on the book of the same name by Max Miller, the film is about a newspaper reporter who uncovers a mysterious smuggling operation. Encore Saturday 11/25 at 7 PM.

IN THE ARENA 8 PM

Special guest host Fr. Michael Duffy is joined by Alice McDermott, a New York Times best-selling author, Paul Kengor, author of A Pope and a President, and Shari Sharifi-Brown, an Iranian engineer who has had the unique experience of living with all three Abrahamic religions: Islam, Judaism, and Christianity.

MONDAY 11/20

CATHOLIC DAY 2017 SPECIAL 8 PM

In September 2017, the Diocese of Brooklyn hosted the first annual Catholic Day at Citi Field. The event is part of the Year of Vocations campaign, an effort to encourage young people to think about, pray for, and discern their life's calling. Watch the featured entertainment and interviews. Encore 11/23 at 12 Noon.

WEDNESDAY 11/22

CITY OF CHURCHES 8 PM

Blessed Sacrament parish in Manhattan had its first Mass in a stable on 72nd Street. Anthony Mangano visits Father John Duffell and learns how the church has continued to serve the Lincoln Center community for more than a century.

THURSDAY 11/23

REEL FAITH - THANKSGIVING EPISODE 8 PM

David DiCerto and Steven Greydanus are starting a new tradition, celebrating Thanksgiving with you. They are reviewing the DC Comics blockbuster, Justice League. Then Fr. Robert Lauder talks about the 1952 Kirk Douglas film, The Bad and the Beautiful on his Movie with a Message segment. Encore 11/24 at 8 PM.

FRIDAY 11/24

FATIMA GEM 8: PRAYING FOR THE SOULS 8:30 PM

Our Lady of Fatima's messages are more relevant today than they were over 100 years ago. Get inspired by stories of people sharing their journeys of faith, hope and love. Encore Saturday 11/25 at 9 PM.

A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

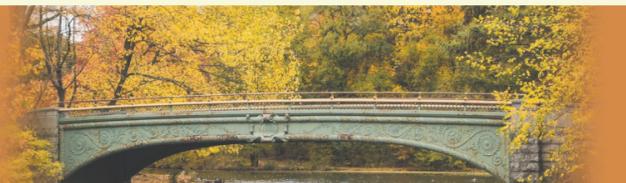

Follow Msgr. Harrington @MonsignorH

A small group of our brothers and sisters spent last week in Houston assisting those ravaged by the effects of Hurricane Harvey. They ripped out moldy drywall and disposed of the former treasures destroyed and waterlogged in people's homes. Most importantly, they are a sign of our solidarity with those who grapple with the devastation of mother nature. We all were horrified by the images that we see from Texas and parts of Florida, Saint Martin, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and everywhere else affected by the recent hurricanes. This small band of volunteers is a reminder that those suffering are not forgotten. We cannot fix all the problems of the world but we must do what we can do to make the world a better place. Our small group of Catholics Care will also be organizing a trip to Puerto Rico to assist those who lost so much. We invite you to join us on this next trip that will be announced in the coming weeks. Pray for our volunteers or make a donation to assist in the recovery efforts. We ought not celebrate Thanksgiving one day a year. Each time we assist those who are in distress we express our gratitude to Almighty God for the many blessings He has bestowed upon us. May God bless you. Editor's note: to make a donation, go to <https://dioceseofbrooklyn.org/care>
