This week we will celebrate Thanksgiving. President Abraham Lincoln was the first to issue a Presidential Proclamation to celebrate Thanksgiving, but the origins of this celebration date back to the Pilgrims. The Eucharist, which the Church celebrates each day, is our "Thanksgiving" to Almighty God for the saving acts of Christ. After a contentious election, it seems almost half the country is not in the mood for celebrating. Yet, let us not forget that we, in the United States, are blessed with freedom and prosperity. We are not at war. Natural disaster has not paralyzed our nation. Sure we may have differences but as President Obama reminds us, "we are all on the same team." That is something to celebrate. May God bless you.
