A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

Follow Msgr. Harrington @MonsignorH

This year we, in the Brooklyn Diocese, will be treated to the beautiful voice of Sister Cristina Succia. The 27-year-old nun won Italy's "The Voice" contest in 2014 and now she is coming to the United States for the first time ever. She accepted Monsignor Jamie Gigantiello's invitation to sing at a Christmas concert to benefit Catholic Education. Sister Cristina has touched the world with her angelic voice. As we take up a collection for Retired Religious this week, why not take a moment and drop a note to a sister or brother who may have made a difference in your life? If the Religious has gone home to the Lord, say a prayer for her/him. But whatever you do, don't miss Sister Cristina at Lincoln Center on Monday, December 12. May God bless you.
