A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

This week Americans will go to polls all across the country. We will be electing municipal and state officials, senators and members of Congress. We also will choose a President. Candidates for elected offices are but a reflection of the citizenry. If we are corrupt, we will have corrupt politicians. If we are scoundrels, we can expect that those who represent us will be equally immoral. If this election has proven anything, it is that we as a nation must undergo a purification, if we are to once again be the "shining city upon a hill." God bless you.
