A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

This week, the priests of the diocese had a convocation at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington. Together, we prayed and discussed how best to accomplish the work of the new evangelization in Brooklyn and Queens. The starting point for that great project is conversion. We who call the people to turn to Christ must ourselves recognize the continued need for conversion. Pray for your priests as we pray for you! May God bless you.
