THIS WEEK ON NET TV

SEPTEMBER 2016 WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS

SUNDAY 9/4

IN THE ARENA

8 PM

Msgr. Harrington is in the studio with Arieh Lebowitz and Ed Mullins to discuss unions and the meaning of Labor Day. He is then joined by Matthew Schmitz and Fr. Brian Kolodiejchuk, to discuss the life and canonization of Mother Teresa.

CLASSIC

9 PM

Daniel Roebuck and Sister Maryann Lopiccio of the Brooklyn Diocese are in the studio to discuss "Major Barbara," a 1941 British film starring Wendy Hiller and Rex Harrison. Encore Saturday 9/10 at 9 PM.

TUESDAY 9/6

THE HUMAN PERSON

9 PM

Are human beings superior? If so, what does that mean? In this second episode of the miniseries, we continue our journey in Toronto, where host Deacon Pedro meets with a zookeeper, an obstetrician, and a dance coach as we try to define our place as humans in the created world.

WEDNESDAY 9/7

CITY OF CHURCHES - PREMIERE

8 PM

In this season six premiere, Anthony Mangano visits the tranquil grounds of the Immaculate Conception Monastery in the middle of the bustling Jamaica, Queens neighborhood. He discovers unusual artifacts and a touching memorial designed by parish students.

FRIDAY 9/9

ICONS SPOTLIGHT

8:30 PM

This last episode of the miniseries features Carmen Casterion, a missionary with Corazon Puro (Pure Heart), a CFR apostolate that partners with Catholic Charities to help legal immigrants connect with their U.S. sponsors.

THE CITY DARK

9 PM

A documentary by filmmaker Ian Cheney about light pollution. It follows Cheney's journey to discover the surprising and alarming costs of light pollution and the disappearance of the night sky. Winner of the Best Score / Music Award at the 2011 SXSW Film Festival.

A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
 Vicar for Communications for the Diocese of Brooklyn

This Sunday, the Holy Father raises Mother Teresa of Calcutta to the Altar. The new saint is well known for her great love for the poor, which compelled her to found the Missionaries of Charity. Mother Teresa was singularly focused on Jesus's thirst for our souls, which animated her work with the indigent, girls with challenges due to pregnancies, and those with AIDS. Some have suggested Mother Teresa did not believe because she did not feel God's presence. This phenomenon of the Dark Night of the Soul is not peculiar to her. Mother believed without the consolation of her belief; this makes her faith all the greater. She wondered if her good works were for the praise of the world or her love of Christ. This week the Church rendered a definitive answer. May God bless you.
