A MESSAGE FROM:

Reverend Monsignor Kieran Harrington, V.E.
 Vicar for Communications
 for the Diocese of Brooklyn

 @MonsignorH

This week we celebrate the Feast of the Assumption. Following the horror and bloodshed of the World War II, many began to question how such evil could occur. Some postulated that we inhabited a world without meaning. We still struggle with the evil that men do to one another. The Feast of the Assumption reminds us that the Almighty's creation is noble. Mary the great Mother of God is the crowning jewel of all creation. The ancient Christians held that Mary drifted off to sleep as she was taken up into heaven. This doctrine of the Dormition – the falling asleep of Mary is what we in the west refer to as the Assumption. It was solemnly defined as a teaching of the Catholic Church on November 1, 1950. May God bless you.
