

CLASSIC

FROM YOUR FAVORITE FILMS
TO YOUR INSTANT CLASSICS

WITH HOST AND MOVIE EXPERT
DANIEL ROEBUCK
OF THE FUGITIVE, MATLOCK AND LOST

CANGSTER STORY

Daniel Roebuck and Ed Wilkinson discuss the 1959 independent film about a reformed bank robber, starring Walter Matthau, who also directed it.
2/18/18

A BOY, A GIRL AND A DOG

Sister Maryann Lopiccolo discusses the 1946 WWII film about two youngsters who enlisted their dog to serve in the war.
2/25/18

CRY DANGER

Monsignor Fernando Ferrarese talks about the 1951 film noir thriller starring Dick Powell and Rhonda Fleming.
3/4/18

JOHNNY NOBODY

In this 1961 UK drama, William Bendix portrays an Irish-American author whose atheistic rantings bring about his mysterious death. Monsignor Harrington and Daniel Roebuck discuss this unusual film.
3/11/18

MARTIN & LEWIS LIVE!

In this Jerry Lewis birthday tribute, Anthony Mangano and Daniel Roebuck discuss when the comedy team of Martin & Lewis performed on The Colgate Comedy Hour in 1950.
3/18/18

THE GREEN CLOVE

Sister Maryann Lopiccolo and Daniel Roebuck discuss this 1952 film about the search for a saint's relic stolen by the Nazis, starring Glen Ford and Geraldine Brooks.
3/25/18

NEW EPISODES
SUNDAYS AT 3 PM
ENCORE SATURDAYS AT 7 PM
www.netny.tv/classic

NEW YORK'S CATHOLIC STATION

Fios by Verizon 48
Optimum 30
Spectrum 97
netny.tv

