

CLASSIC

FROM YOUR FAVORITE FILMS
TO YOUR INSTANT CLASSICS

WITH HOST AND MOVIE EXPERT
DANIEL ROEBUCK
OF THE FUGITIVE, MATLOCK AND LOST

PRIVATE BUCKAROO

Daniel Roebuck and Reverend Ronald D'Antonio discuss the 1942 patriotic musical designed to encourage enlistment during WWII. They also discuss the Three Stooges' Brideless Groom (1947).
4/22/18

SCARLET STREET

Monsignor Guy Massie discusses the 1945 film, starring Edward G. Robinson, Joan Bennett and Dan Duryea. It is a story of a middle-aged artist who is cheated out of his work by a beautiful young woman and her criminal boyfriend.
4/29/18

MAN OF CONFLICT

Monsignor Kieran Harrington talks about the 1953 drama in which a young man prepares to take over his family's business from his corrupted father. Starring Edward Arnold, John Agar, Susan Morrow, and John Hamilton.
5/6/18

JANE EYRE

Sister Maryann Lopiccio discusses the 1970's version of one of her all-time favorite stories. George C. Scott stars as Edward Rochester and Susannah York is the titular heroine in this made-for-television version of the classic novel.
5/13/18

THE HITCHHIKER

Currents News anchor Liz Faublas joins Daniel Roebuck to discuss the suspenseful 1953 film noir classic directed by Ida Lupino—one of Hollywood's first female movie directors. Based on a true story.
5/20/18

THE BIG TREES

Monsignor Fernando Ferrarese and Daniel Roebuck discuss this 1952 film about a quiet religious group fighting back greedy, dishonest timber barons who scheme to chop down the entire forest of trees on the group's land.
5/27/18

NEW EPISODES
SUNDAYS AT 3 PM
ENCORE SATURDAYS AT 7 PM
www.netny.tv/classic

NEW YORK'S CATHOLIC STATION

Fios by Verizon 48
Optimum 30
Spectrum 97
www.netny.tv

